Trimarchi Appointed to Chrostwaite Institute Board

For Immediate Release

(Harrisburg – January 13, 2011) The Chrostwaite Institute today announced that Joseph E. Trimarchi has been appointed to serve on their Board of Directors through June 30, 2014. His appointment to the board was unanimously approved at a recent Institute meeting.

Joseph Trimarchi has worked in the banking and financial service industries for over 30 years and is currently a member of the Indiana Area School District Board of Directors. He earned a Bachelor of Arts from Villanova University and is involved with the Evergreen Conservancy. He is the Vice President/Manager Public Sector at First Commonwealth Bank and formerly served on the Board of Directors for the James M. Steward Museum.

“Mr. Trimarchi is an exceptional member of the community that has made significant contributions in the nonprofit, government and private sectors.” said Ronald Evanko, fellow Chrostwaite board member and 1st Vice President of the Pennsylvania State Association of Boroughs. “Joseph is a strong addition to our leadership team and we look forward to working with him on public policy issues pertinent to all Pennsylvania communities.”
